'Farm-to-Fork'

Celebrate Local Foods and Local Farms

Featuring Carlo Petrini, acclaimed author and founder of Slow Food International.

In a rare U.S. appearance, Mr. Petrini will join the celebration and lead the conversation about why our food choices matter and how we can help create a new food democracy.

Tuesday, May 22

'Farm-to-Fork' Picnic Honoring Carlo Petrini

Chapel Hill Creamery
615 Chapel Hill Creamery Rd. • Chapel Hill
5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

This family-friendly evening pairs the regions most acclaimed chefs with Piedmont farmers. Featured foods include barbecued heritage pigs, deviled eggs from pastured chickens, local produce, an old-fashioned Southern dessert table, live bluegrass, and a chance to visit with the whey-fed pigs while they have their supper.

Brought to you by Slow Food Triangle, NC Choices, and SEEDS, proceeds will be used to plant heirloom Southern apple trees at Lakewood & Burton Elementary Schools in Durham.

Tickets are $35 per person; kids 12 and under are free. Tickets must be purchased in advance. Call 755-3804 or e-mail meg@wsigroup.biz.

Wednesday, May 23
